WIFE'S CHARCES

Wealthy Young Man Says He Didn't Point a Pistol at Her or Treat Her Brutally.

SEQUEL TO A ROMANCE.

He Pursued Her Across the Ocean and Won Her Consent to a Marriage in Spite of the Opposition of Parents.

and alimony, his answer being a school teacher.

The young woman's father, who

The matrimonial difficulties are the years a life of indolence and luxury. Each Is with Parents.

Until a few days ago the Perrys had bury and Blackburn. apartments at No. 57 West Fifty-seventh street. He is now with his mother in the Majestic, where he has been served with his wife's papers, and she is with her many times, rendering it unsafe for mistake and are willing to undo the they were married, she says, he threw her to the floor and beat her with a cane. Two months later, she says, he pointed a pistol at her. During their boy. thets at her. She asserts that he is turned home together and they sat has always kept the pictures of ac- party was a Fred Dinney, who lives tresses he admired about the house.

Mrs. Perry also asks that her husband be prevented from sequestering 3600 in cash, which she says is her own, and a long list of valuable jewelry. She does not explain how he got these.

Never Been in Business.

When young Perry, then just out of Cornell, showed an attachment for Miss Wells her father sent her to Europe with her sisters, Mrs. Fasi and Mrs. Rand, of Orange, N. J., to get her away from him. Perry followed and in London insisted on an immediate wedding, which took place in St. George's Church and were married.

Were Not Sweethearts. don insisted on an immediate wedding, which took place in St. George's Church, Hanover Square.

After a trip abroad the young couple came home and were forgiven. Perry has never been in any business and has spent his time in pleasures, such as automobling. He pays the chauffeur for his $7,000 automobile $100 a month salary, it is said.

SHOT BY HIS SON.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Col., Sept. 18. -Thomas McNulty, a rancher, is dead from a bullet wound in the head inslicted by one of his two sons. Thomas and William, twelve and nine years respectively. The boys and the mother have been placed under arrest.

WON'T EAT MEALS SIXTEEN YEARS IN HIS WIFE ORDERS.

Wealthy Commission Merchant Loses Family Because He Insisted on Having Cook Do What She Was Hired For

Because he refused to eat meals which his wife had arranged for with their cook the domestic relations of John Hale, a wealthy commission merchant having offices at No. 120 Broadway, this city, and living at St. George, S. I., and his wife, Catherine, became so strained that Mrs. Hale yesterday brought suit against her husband for separation in a special session of the Supreme Court at St. George before Justice Molineux. This morning a decision was rendered in which articles of separation were granted to Mrs. Hale and she was given the custody of her three children.

attorney, J. Henry Tiernan, claimed that the trouble had all commenced treated his wife because she insisted upon giving orders to the cook for the various meals that were served. Hale, was alleged, absolutely refused to eat the meals that his wife ordered, insisted that the cook was employed to get up the dinners, and when Mrs. Hale persisted in running her own household her husband became cruel and her husband threatened to kill her.

agreed to a final settlement in a suit for divorce which will be shortly instituted. The Hales live in a $30,000 villa at Eltingville. S. I., and have been married since 1888.

CAR BLOCKS FOUR LINES.

Derailed at Fifty-Ninth Street and Columbus Avenue.

For nearly an hour this morning traffig on the Fifty-ninth street, Ninth avenue and Amsterdam avenue, Sixth avenue and Amsterdam avenue, and the Broadway and Columbus avenue lines it was stopped, because of the derailing of a heavy sand car at Fifty-ninth street and Columbus avenue, where all of the lines meet.

A south-bound sand car was turning the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Columbus avenue, when for some unknown reason it left the track. The BOY WHO MARRIED ON A DARE WANTS COURTS TO FREE HIM.

Fathers of Both Young Persons Agree to Apply for an Annulment of the Ceremony.

ALL CALL IT A MISTAKE.

Bride Was a School Teacher Was Several Years the Senior of Her Hus-

Married on a dare, "Eddie" Hammer, the nineteen-year-old son of Ernest E. Hammer, of No. 691 East William Talbot Perry, son of the One Hundred and Forty-first street late William T. Periy, member of the is voted a chump by his young com-Stock Exchange, will file in the Su- panions in the Bronx for agreeing to preme Court on Monday an answer ask for an annulment of the ceremony which made him the husband to his wife's petition for separation of Miss Constance J. Delmar, a pretty shares the elder Hammer's anxiety culmination of a romance in which for an annulment of the marriage, is there was a hurried trip across the ecean, a marriage against the wishes of the bride's family and then for three can chess team and a worthy opcan chess team and a worthy opponent for such experts as Pills

Dr. A. L. Goldwater, No. 66 East One Hundred and Twelfth street, is young her father, Dr. G. W. Wells, in Brook- Mrs. Hammer's brother-in-law. He told to-day how she came to be married. Her petition is a long tale of abuses "It was all a foolish prank," he de and cruelties. She says he has beaten clared. "Both of them recognized their her to live with him. Four months after mischief. They had known each other whole married career, she alleges, he has constantly hurled opprobrious epi- a dance. A crowd of young folks re "On June 26 last he escorted her t addicted to liquor in excess and that he the stoop of the Delmar home. In the in St. Ann's avenue. He had read in an

Were Not Sweethearts.

Mrs. Delmar and her daughter were seen later at their residence. No. 533 West One Hundred and Fifty-ninth street. The mother did the talking. "My daughter was not 'Eddle' Hammers gweetheart," said Mrs. Delmar, "We were neighbors and Eddle was about a good deal and all the girls sympathized with him because he used to tell them of how hard his father used to make him work.

"They got into that foolish argument about secret marriages and on an impulse made it up to marry and keep the thing secret for two years, until 'Eddle' was of age. It was a foolish idea, because I learned of it within a few days. I hed a serious talk with my daughter and she quite agreed with me that she had made a mistake. Her father took her to Rye Beach and we moved over here to be away from the Hammers."

SEARCH OF GIRL.

Francis Rosbary, Now Rich. Continues Hunt for Daughter, Who Was Probably Kidnapped by Divorced Wife.

After an absence of sixteen years, supposed to have been kidnapped by her nother, Marie Rosbary, who would now be twenty-two years old, is sought by her father, Francis Rosbary, holding an executive position with the Pullman Palace Car Company and having a magnificent home in Chicago.

He has employed the nurse who cared for the child in infancy. She is now in Brooklyn making the search. The is now Mrs. D. Van Assche and iving with friends at No. 310 Va

In the suit for separation, Mrs. Hale's his wife sixteen years ago, when they "Mr. Rosbary secured a divorce from were living on lower Fulton street, Brooklyn," said Mrs. Van Assche toover the abusive manner in which Hale day. "He was given custody of little Marie, who was then six years old, but when the officers went after the child the mother, Josephine Rosbary, had disappeared with her daughter.

"From that day to this no trace of either has been found, Mr. Rosbary went to Vienna, where he was married, thinking Mrs. Rosbary might have gone neglected her. Once, Mrs. Hale testified, there. He searched through the whole city and finally made his residence Hale did not deny the charges and has there. He married again in Vienna > prosperous and for several years I have been doing nothing but search for Marle, who must now be a beautiful young who must now be a beautiful young woman.

"I have come to Brooklyn to start the scarch all over again and I am now trying to learn where Mrs. Rosbary went when she left Brooklyn. So far I have found nothing. Mr. Rosbary, who is now wealthy, has spent a great deal of money in making the search. He insists that I continue, because I will perhaps be able to recognize his daughter when I see her.

"Mr. Rosbary fears that she may be in want, or not in the best hands and surrounded by comfort. He has a fine home and wishes to have her come and live with him and enjoy the luxuries and society his fortune and position offer."

DROPPED FOR LOAFING. John G. Kelly, for ten years a clerk in the Coroners' office, was dropped deralled wheels were thrown across the north-bound track in such a way as to prevent the north-bound cars from passing.

When the work was completed the many thrown the work for a week without leave of absence. His salary was $2,000 a year.

MRS. "EDDIE" HAMMER.

INVENTOR FINDS HE THREE SHOTS FIRED HAS TIME FOR LOVE.

Gave Him Up-Now He Advertises for Her-

T. W. Langill, an inventor, who has room at No. 29 Park Row, is tired of vertisement calling for a brand-new wife, for Langill has a wife, although e is not quite sure where she is. A few years ago he lived with her in a little country town just outside Ner York. He was very happy, but science and love do not as a rule produce do mestic felicity. Langill invented things and was so wrapped up in his work that, like Sig. Marconi, he had "no time

Then his wife lost patience and he lost her affection. And they agreed to separate

But it now transpires that Langill did not know when he had a good thing, and to-day he inserted a personal in a morning newspaper, for he is anxiou to get his wife back. He thinks that after due consideration, love is more atisfactory than science.

Vanderbilt Wins at Paris. PARIS, Sept. 18.-W. K. Vanderbilt's Biltmore won the Prix Chene Royal to-day at the Maisons Laffitte races.

AT HER BY MOTHER

Science Took Up All His At- Mrs. Cadmus Tells Magistrate tention and Neglected Wife Mrs. Eilletti Climbed on Balustrade and Put Pistol Over attempting to shoot her yesterday,

Mrs. Cadmus said her mother can

Transom-Got a Summons.

living without the loving comforts of Hundred and Eighteenth street, applied lives at No. 93 West avenue, Long Island City. She charges her mother with

> The young woman told the Magistrate he was married four months ago in pposition to her mother's wishes to Thomas M. Cadmus, a barber, at No 300 West One Hundred and Twenty-first street. She had not seen her mother o this borough and called to see Cadus. Failing to 2find him at his shop the went around to the house. The quarter of whom Louis A. Disbro

Malta-Vita Perfect Perfood

"Big Bill" Can't Break

DEVERY IS SCORNFUL.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 18 .- When Declares He Is No Thief, but ex-Mayor James K. McGuire, Chairman of the State Democratic Committee, was asked what he had to say Court-Martialled. about Devery's victory, and if he still adhered to his statement of a fort-

Democratic State Convention, Chairman McGuire said: "I have nothing to add to what to the value of $50,000 were discovsaid on that subject at that time. Nothing to add or withdraw from what I have already said about

"When I said I would keep Devery out of the State Convention don't you suppose that I knew all the time he would win in New York? If not, what was the use of saying that he would be prevented from taking his sent in the State

Into Convention.

"Big Bill" Devery shouldered and bluffed his way through a strong opposition intrenched in power to the leadership of the Tammany Hall organization in the Ninth Assembly District, and he expects to shoulder himself into the councils of the Democratic party, large and small, by the same methods.

"I began with a peace offering," said Devery to-day. "I asked Goodwin to give me half the representation in the district organization. He sneered and laughed at me. Then I said 'We'll fight,' and we did fight. I leave it to the press and public whether we did not give 'em all they came after.

by his own neighbors when he came beore 'em for re-election for Mayor of Syracuse, says he stands by what as said, that he would keep me out of the state Convention, an' that he knew all state Convention, an' that he knew all of the affairs of the hospital on Jan. I by Etch has been an examiner in Syracuse, says he stands by what he an' laid pipes long ago to keep me out, "I say Bill Devery is a goin' to represent the people of the Ninth at the Saratoga Convention an' McGuire an' Hill nor nobody else can keep him out. An' Bill Devery never goes back on what he says."

FOSTER'S BODY IS EXHUMED AGAIN.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., Sept. 18.-T she went around to the house. The murder of whom Louis A. Disbrow is young woman saw her mother coming and locked the door.

Her mother, she said, climbed on the balastrade in the hall, pushed open the transom over the door and fired several shots. The Magistrate gave Mrs. Cadmus a summons directing her mother to appear in court to-morrow morning.

Her mother, she said, climbed on the balastrade in the hall cheep thysicians at Good Ground. This was for the purpose of examining the head to ascertain if there had been a concussion of the brain such as might be caused by a blow. The result was kept secret. The Grand Jury will take up Disbrow's case Monday.

Syracuse Man Stands Private Accused of by Statement that Theft Arrested and Fortune in Jewels Recovered.

HAD RARE CURIOS, TOO.

Amassed Collection While on Duty in China-Will Be night ago that Devery would never J. E. Teikman, a marine in the be permitted to occupy a seat in the Brooklyn Navy-Yard, has been arrested, charged wit htheft. In searching his belongings fewelry and curios ered. These have been seized by the authorities.

For some time officers attached to the yard have missed jewelry and clothing. Lieut. Booth recently lost several pieces of value. Teikman's trunk was searched in the investigation that followed and the discovery

There were specimens of rare porcelain and some almost priceless bits of Chinese and Japanese bric-a-brac. There were pieces of jewelry inlaid with gems ending the marines, said to-day:

This matter does not concern the pub-"This matter does not concern the pub-lic. The property taken did not belong to the Government. The private arrested will be court-martialled. He was caught red-handed."

Telkman says he got his trunkful of valuables while on duty recently in China. He denies that he is a thief.

BELLEVUE DOCTORS OUT.

Fitch, examiners in the lunacy department at Bellevue Hospital, have tendered their resignations to the Board of "But say, the fight that's over ain't a Trustees. The resignations have been marker to what's coming. I see Me- accepted. Dr. Fitch's resignation will Guire, the fellow what was turned down take effect immediately and Dr. Wild-

Everybody is at a loss to understand why the physicians resigned, but it is rumored there has been a great deal of of the affairs of the hospital on Jan. 1. Dr. Fitch has been an examiner in lunacy in the hospital for ten years and before that was connected with the City Prison. He has a wide reputation as an expert in lunacy. Dr. Wildman has been connected with the institution for six years. It is said that their places will be tilled by Drs. Packer and Gregory, attending physicians in the insane pavillion at Bellevue.

$50,000 LOOT IN IMPORTANT SALE OF MARINE'S TRUNK Men's Top Coats. The very choicest of this season's IMPORTANT SALE OF tan shades..... Fine quality Covert Cloth Top Coats, newest box cutextra well made, choice of silk or serge lining; all new tan shades, in-$15.00 cluding the new green tinted tan... Black Cheviot Top Coats, good ack Cheviot Top Coats, good $10,00 value....... Black Cheviot and Oxford Top

Coats, stylish cut, good make; $12.50 Black unfinished Worsteds, Thibet and Oxford

Top Coats, handsome, perfect $15.00

47 Cortlandt St., bet. Church and Greenwich Sts. 211 and 219 Sixth Ave., bet. 14th and 15th Sts. Convenient

I bequeath to my children Scrofula with all its attendant horrors, humiliation and suffering. This is a strange legacy to leave to posterity; a heavy burden to place upon the shoulders of the young.

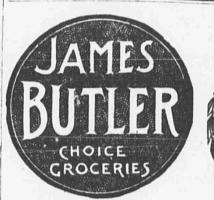

This treacherous disease dwarfs the body and hinders the growth and development of the faculties, and the child born of blood poison, or scrofula-tainted parentage, is poorly equipped for life's duties. Scrofula is a disease with numerous and varied symptoms; enlarged glands or tumors about the neck and armpits, catarrh of the head, weak eyes and dreadful skin eruptions upon different parts of the body show the presence of tubercular or scrofulous matter in the blood. This dangerous and stealthy disease entrenches itself securely in the system and attacks the bones and tissues, destroys the red corpuscles of the blood, resulting in white swelling, a pallid, waxy appearance of the skin, loss of strength and a gradual wasting away of the body. S. S. S. combines both purifying and tonic properties, and is guaranteed entirely vegetable, making it the ideal remedy in all scrofulous affections. It purifies the deteriorated blood, makes it rich and strong and a complete and permanent cure is soon effected. S. S. S. improves the digestion and assimilation of food, restores the lost properties to the blood and quickens the circulation, bringing a healthy color to the skin and vigor to the weak and emaciated body.

Write us about your case and our physicians will advise and help you without charge to regain your health. Book on blood and skin diseases free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO. Atlanta, Ga. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

CROCERIE

Pride of St. Louis

Here is a seasonable item which should appeal to every housekeeper. The famous Pride of St. Louis Brand, the most perfect flour milled in America, is to be sold during the next three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, at the lowest price on record for many a

A Bag, 49c. A Barrel, $3.89

SPECIAL. CURTICE JAMS. SPECIAL

For this sale we quote this special price. The goods are fresh packed and have just been received. A Jar 13c., or 2 Jars for 25c.

CRACKERS.
Ginger Snaps, Lemon Grackers, Nic-Nacs,	}		ound,
Mustard Sardine Gold Label Brind, pe	s, Best	Quality,	120
Evaporated Per Quality, per pound.	eaches	 Best 	110
Sardines, in Oil,	Good	Quality,	4c
Triumph Baked or Sauce; our best, p	Bean	s, Plain	12c
Housekeepers' H	od Qual	ty, per	10c
Muson Jar Jelly	, Good	Quality,	10c
Jam, Liberty Brand			90

Asparagus, Fancy California Colden State Brand, per can.... 23c Salt, vacuum process, large bag.... 5c

FANCY SIFTED PEAS. 2 Cans for 25c.

FLOUR-SYRUP. A Package of Peerless Prepared Flour, A Quart Bottle Golden Drip Syrup,

1 Pound Best Mocha and Java Coffee, A Can Butler's Milk

Both 29c. MACARONI-CHEESE.

Both 19c. SARDINES.

inest Santa Clara Prunes, 2 lbs.

Both 19c. COFFEE-MILK. Table Salt, Blue Ribbon Brand, 2-

..... 15c

A Package Best Imported Macaroni. A Pound Best Full Cream Cheese, Cans Imported Sardines for 25c PRUNES.

BAKING POWDER. Blue Ribbon Brand, strictly pure Cream of Tartar 1-lb. can, 1/2-lb. can, 1/4-lb. can, 10c. 35c. 18c.

Butler's Square Blue, 6 squares. Black Pepper, 4-pound can....... Borax, strictly pure, 4-pound packcider or White Wine Vine-7c Root Beer Extract, Peerless 7c Brand, a bottle..... Domestic, pint 10c Worcestershire Sauce, Peerless 13c

10c Witch Hazel, 16-pint bottle. PEAS_TOMATOES_CORN. can Early June Peas, All Three can Standard Tomatoes, 25c. , 25c.

Blue Ribbon Breakfast Food (None Better) PACKAGE 10C

BRAIN and MUSCLE

Pure, Palatable, Popular. Millions are eating MALTA-VITA "THE PERFECT FOOD"

The Great Dyspepsia Destroyer.

MALTA-VITA is the VITAL, the LIFE-GIVING FOOD, the INVIGORATOR OF BRAIN AND BODY. MALTA-VITA is the original and only perfectly cooked, thoroughly malted, flaked, and toasted whole wheat food, and contains more nutrition, more tissue-building qualities, more nerve stimulant than is found in any other food.

> Perfect Health Is Sustained by a Perfect Food.

MALTA-VITA, "The perfect food," eaten for breakfast and supper insures perfect digestion and removes all cause of insomnia and dyspepsia. 90% of the ills of life are due to poor digestion. Perfect health, sound, restful sleep, clear complexion, bright eyes, clean, white teeth, sweet breath are the blessings that follow a regular diet of MALTA-VITA.

Beware of imitations. Insist on getting MALTA-VITA, "The perfect food." Requires no cooking, always ready to eat. Relished by old and young, sick Large package 15c at your grocer's.

MALTA-VITA PURE FOOD CO., Battle Creek, Mich. Toronto, Canada